

9th Annual Conference of the German Law and Economics Association (GLEA) 2011
Bonn, 28 and 29 October 2011

sponsored by SFB TR 15 Governance and the Efficiency of Economic Systems

Second Call for Papers

keynote lectures:

- Martin Hellwig, Professor of Economics, Max Planck Institute for Research on Collective Goods and University of Bonn
- Gerhard Wagner, Professor of Law, University of Bonn

paper submission:

Papers on any subject related to law and economics can be submitted to Dr. Silke Kinzig at skinzig@uni-bonn.de by 15 August 2011. If your paper is accepted for presentation, the organizer covers accommodation costs in Bonn.

registration as a discussant:

You may also register as an official discussant by 15 August 2011. If you are assigned one of the accepted papers, the organizer also covers accommodation costs in Bonn.

Please note that costs of accommodation can only be covered if you meet the above mentioned deadline. Unfortunately, we feel unable to cover travel expenses.

registration without presenting or discussing a paper:

You may also register by 15 August 2011 without submitting a paper and without serving as an official discussant in which case, however, we cannot cover costs of accommodation.

venue:

The meeting takes place at the Gustav Stresemann Institute in Bonn. Due to cancelation policy, the registration deadline of 15 August 2011 must strictly be met.

Responsible:

Prof. Urs Schweizer, Department of Economics, University of Bonn, schweizer@uni-bonn.de

Organization:

Dr. Silke Kinzig, Bonn Graduate School of Economics and SFB TR 15, skinzig@uni-bonn.de