GOVERNANCE AND THE EFFICIENCY OF ECONOMIC SYSTEMS
GESY

Invitation and Call for Papers
PLEASE REGISTER BY JULY 12, 2015

After 12 years the SFB/TR 15 is coming to its natural conclusion. There will be a final conference on

October 28-30 in Tutzing (near Munich)

Phillipe Aghion (Harvard University), Dirk Bergemann (Yale University) and Ulrike Malmendier (UC Berkeley) accepted to deliver keynote lectures. All members of the SFB/TR 15 are invited to register for participation at the conference.

Date and Venue:

The conference will take place from October 28 (arrival until lunchtime) to October 30, 2015 (departure in the early afternoon). Conference venue is the „Evangelische Akademie Tutzing“ in Tutzing at Lake Starnberg (<http://web.ev-akademie-tutzing.de/cms/index.php?id=32> ). More information on location and travel directions will be available at www.sfbtr15.de in due course. Local organizers are Tamilla Benkelberg and Klaus Schmidt.

Registration:

Please register for the conference with Tamilla Benkelberg (email: sfb-tr15@econ.lmu.de )

until July 12, 2015.

Notice that format of the conference differs slightly from previous meetings. All projects of the SFB should be represented with at least one presentation. Therefore, each project leader should indicate which paper submitted by his project is supposed to represent the project and which (if any) additional papers are submitted. Please submit title, abstract, and an electronic version (PDF) of the paper that you would like to present at the conference.

Reimbursement:

Board and lodging at the conference will be arranged. Travel costs are reimbursed by the local nodes of the network for all SFB members and by the SFB office for the external participants.
